

MARKETING

EXPLOCEN C.A. offers the next promotions to its clients:

- Demonstrations

The company has a group of professionals that realize demonstrations about the products and technical assistance to its potential clients.

- Training

EXPLOCEN C.A. trains its actual and potential clients, at national level, with the purpose to explain the use and handle of the products and services. Every two years the International Perforation and Explosive Seminar takes place, in which all the national market sectors and professionals related to explosives use participate. The purpose of the seminar is to better the techniques, usage methods and to show the products that EXPLOCEN C.A. offers.
